Self-Guided Tour of Sandhill Crane Art

on the Yampa River Core Trail in Steamboat Springs, Colorado

Colorado Crane Conservation Coalition
“The Yampa is Wild” Mural

On the two sides of the Routt Co. Search & Rescue building at 911 Yampa St., this beautiful 850 square foot mural depicting all 250 miles of the Yampa River was designed and drawn by artist Jill Bergman, executed by 120 volunteers, and sponsored by Friends of the Yampa, Steamboat Creates, and the City of Steamboat Springs.

“Dreamboat”

On an exterior wall of Freshies restaurant, 145 Trafalgar Drive, is this colorful 35-ft long mural of the Yampa Valley and some of its beloved residents, created by artist Julia Dordoni.

Yampa River Core Trail

Snow Bowl Mural

Located on the interior walls of the Snow Bowl bowling alley, 2090 Snow Bowl Plaza, are two 80-ft long murals by artist Julia Dordoni created out of sheet metal, mirrors, and plexiglass. The murals show our local elk, Fish Creek Falls, Mt. Werner, and two dancing sandhill cranes.

“Crane”

This bronze sculpture by artist Jack Stevens was created as part of the Art in Public Places program sponsored by Steamboat Creates.
